

G. Medically Necessary Occupational and Physical Therapy

In accordance with the State Interagency Cooperative Agreement between the California Department of Education and the California Department of Health Services Children's Medical Services Branch California Children Services Medical Therapy Program, CCS provides occupational therapy and physical therapy as part of a student's IEP when it is medically necessary.