

CALL FOR PRESENTERS!

The Solano County SELPA is accepting proposals to present at the 6th Annual Under the Big Top, a three-day conference for general and special education professionals!

The conference is scheduled for Wednesday, August 7 - Friday, August 9, 2024

Please note the following:

- The conference will be in person and available to education practitioners from LEAs and Nonpublic Schools and Agencies.
- Presentations are limited to 1 hour and 45 minutes (additional time in the form of a back-to-back session is available, as needed).
- Presenters will be deeply appreciated and thanked for their contribution to the education community and are welcome to attend sessions offered at no charge!
- There is no monetary compensation for presenting a workshop.
- Individuals may submit up to three presentation applications.

Click here to submit a workshop proposal.
Application deadline is Friday, March 29, 2024

